Farmingville, NY – At the January 24 Town Board meeting, Councilman Kevin LaValle (second from left) honored Moller's Sandwich Shop in Farmingville as Business of the Month for January in Council District 3. The award is given to a business deserving special recognition for the positive impact they have on the community.

meeting.

Councilman LaValle said, "Mike Moller has run a successful business and he's been a great community partner for 20 years. I commend his support of veterans and other local groups and I am happy to name Moller's Sandwich Shop as the January Business of the Month, a well-deserved honor."
